A HAVEN OF WELLNESS

Hidden away in the heart of Bangkok City, Sivatel Bangkok is a sanctuary of peace amid the bustling central business district. Here, wellbeing is at the core of our thinking and threads through everything we do.

Located just mere steps away from the Phloenchit Skytrain station's convenience, the spaces within our hotel are designed to promote both calm and rejuvenation a touch of modern Thai, supported by time-tested concepts from local folk wisdom. Guests are treated to the delights of green open areas around our public facilities as well as the generous spaciousness of our guestrooms that offer the comfort of being right at home in the midst of the surrounding exuberant city life.

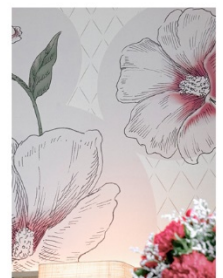

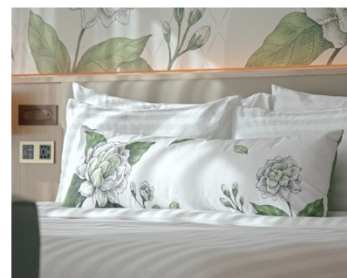

Our culinary offers come directly from local farmers within our organic farming and agriculture networks, ensuring our ingredients are of the best quality for the utmost safety for our guests. With our ethos of happiness, our staff is part of our family. Together we work hard to share our love of what we do with our guests. Through our famous Thai hospitality and genuine care, it is our wish that every guest feels like a part of our family, too, throughout and well beyond their stay.

From a broader perspective, we care deeply about the world beyond ourselves. We strive to protect the environment through our sustainability goals as well as do our best to support the local communities around us.

Sivatel Design Suites are inspired by flower mosaic on the Buddhist stupa in Wat Pho Temple, one of Bangkok's oldest temples existed before Bangkok that established as the capital by King Rama I. Flowers play a diverse role in human life representing a unique meaning. Different colors in the suites have the ability to affect and evoke specific emotions.

Eight Design Suites are named after Thai flowers, Jasmine, Champa, Roselle, Chaba, Chrysanthemum, Orchid, Butterfly Pea, and Lotus. After a day of exploring the city and discovering the many delights of Bangkok, you'll probably need somewhere you can retreat to relax and recharge. Our large, spacious suites are just the right place for that.
